

TOWNE ALKE

"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

Ed Huddleston and Perry Guy was among the party that went up to Randsburg over the wk-end and saw the gold mines and Hudd says he could afford to go often if Perry went every time and took his cantering cubes along.

Perry's initials is "P. O." and after extracting all of Perry's loose here Hudd says he guesses the initials stands for "Poor Old."

Bob Deininger come in late to the Kiwanis Club dinner the other night and he had his whiskers shaved off and he looked half undressed.

Charlie Tansley he come in late, too, and they was some among them present that wondered if the same thing made both Charlie and Bob late. But Charlie says he didn't have no brush with the mayor.

Bob he growed them whiskers to heal up his chin, but it didn't do the job and merrily he cut off his whiskers because he was kidded so much, so I tells him yesterday that if he wants to grow them again why we won't razz him no more.

Ed Huddleston tells about a gal up in Randsburg that told Mrs. Bill Quackenbush of Wilmington that she was in an accident once and was so badly hurt that they had to take 72 stitches. Ed says the gal says she didn't take no anaesthetic neither. No anaesthetic and 72 stitches, says Hudd. That sure took a lot of guts. Nobody was hurt.

Bill Gascoigne says your colyum is getting shorter and shorter. What's the matter is the cats all gone.

Aw shut up, I says and he seen he couldn't kid me so he shut up.

When I was up to the San Joaquin valley my host he had a lot of unfermented muscat juice and he put a preservative in it so it wouldn't turn to wine and I liked it so well that when he come down last wk. he give me 6 gallons of it and I calls up the police dept and says a pal is bringing me 5 gals. of grape juice in a keg and we is gonna carry it in the front door and you can come up and taste it or test it if you want to because it ain't wine because I don't want no gossip going about carrying a keg into my house and the police says O. K. Well that night I opens the spigot and draws off a glass and this here grapejuice has started to turn pretty much and it has quite a kick and I talked it over with the boss and we opened the spigot and let the whole 5 gals run into the sink and after it had all run out the boss at our house she says you was pretty brave to do that and I says brave nothing, I was a coward. I didn't dare have it around. Where in the world would I get $500. Gee Whiz.

The bus. mgr. says one reason why widows marry again is because dead men tell no tales. Ouch!

Don Findley another of our bachelors says this petting party stuff is the bunk because when a chap takes a gal on his knee he never knows when she is gonna consider herself on the last lap to matrimony.

Ben Rappaport, still another bachelor, he says that second marriage is a triumph of hope over experience. Ouch, again!

Senator Gawge Neill and Dr. Gawge Shidler and me we sing a trio at the Rotary Club last wk. and it was so awful that Mrs. Neill heard it way over to her house and closed the window. It was this trio that once was shot at while singing up to Lake Elsinore. And after the shot rang out on the clear night air and the song kept winging its way through the moonlit ozone somebody yelled "Tough luck. You missed 'em."

Speaking of singing the three Rappaport bros. at the Kiwanis dinner the other at they dressed all up in high green plug hats and screen dress suit coats and sings "My Vild Irish Rose." Each coat had on it a big letter K and when they stood in a row it read K. K. K. The boys says them letters stands for Klusman Kicks Kingsley.

Nobuddy was hurt.
